REAL ESTATE INVESTING

Stacie McLennon is a native of Maryland and has many years' experience in Real estate. She has a keen eye when it comes to finding quality homes from her experience as an Investor.

Stacie is a full time INVESTOR/REALTOR that makes it her mission to assist you and loves to get to know you down to the smallest of details. Assisting you with finding your new home is her number one mission. Stacie has a very personal touch when it comes to her clients, and loves to help her clients make good solid choices by educating them in Real Estate.

Prior to working in Real Estate Stacie worked in the Engineering field for many years and has lots of Project Management experience. Through this experience she has several contacts who know what a solid foundation should look like in business. Her love of people has led to many community involved projects, such as feeding the community and Women Empowerment outreach programs. Working with Veterans, First responders and Teachers are some of her highlights, because she comes from a Veteran Family along with a history of teachers.

She is also Managing Partner of MSA & Associates, LLC a Veteran owned Real Estate Investment Firm that she and her husband own together. Stacie also works with a Team of Realtors who embodies the same values and principles and is very close knit. The areas in which Stacie and her team of experience Realtors practice Real Estate MD, DC and VA... Some of her affiliations are PGCAR and the Women's Council of Realtors of Prince George's County.
